FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION TO DENY PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Petitioner has filed with this Court a Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus by a Person in State Custody challenging a prison disciplinary ruling wherein petitioner lost 300 days previously accrued good time credits as punishment.¹ At the time he filed his habeas application, petitioner was incarcerated at the Clements Unit in Potter County, Texas pursuant to a Lamar County conviction for the felony offense of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and the resultant 25-year sentence assessed therein on October 8, 2010. State v. Sanders, No. 23,745.

In order to challenge a prison disciplinary adjudication by way of a federal petition for a writ of habeas corpus, a petitioner must, at a minimum, be eligible for mandatory supervised release and have received a punishment sanction that included forfeiture of previously accrued good-time credits. See Malchi v. Thaler, 211 F.3d 953, 958 (5th Cir. 2000). In his habeas application, in response to Question 16 of the form, petitioner acknowledges he is not eligible for release on mandatory supervision. Review of the online Offender Information Detail maintained by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice confirms petitioner's ineligibility as it reflects he was convicted of the October 9, 2010 aggravated assault with a deadly weapon offense. The mandatory supervision statute in effect when petitioner committed his aggravated assault offense on April 18, 2010 stated "[a]n inmate may not be released to mandatory supervision if the inmate is serving a sentence for or has been previously convicted of a first or second degree felony under [Texas Penal Code § 22.02 (aggravated assault)." Texas Gov't Code § 508.149(a)(7) (2010). As petitioner is not eligible for mandatory supervised release, he may not challenge a prison disciplinary proceeding by way of a federal petition for a writ of habeas corpus. See Malchi, 211 F.3d at 958. Petitioner's habeas application should be DENIED.

It is the RECOMMENDATION of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge to the United States Senior District Judge that the petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed by petitioner JEREMY SCOTT SANDERS be DENIED.
